

COVID-19 Emergency Response Grants Phase 2

Operational Support for Organizations

- American Baseball Foundation, Inc., $10,000: To support BASIC after-school program, virtual BASIC Book Club, and Summer BASIC
- Build UP, $15,000: To support infrastructure, systems, and hardware to maintain CDC guidelines for hybrid virtual and in-person classrooms for students
- City of Pell City, $15,000: For operational costs so the county's only free primary care clinic can continue to meet community needs
- College Admissions Made Possible, $25,000: To provide virtual support to students in the areas of math, reading and literacy, and social emotional learning
- Community Care Development Network, $15,000: Operating expenses to support modified workforce development and mentoring programs and increase in food pantry needs
- Empowered to Conquer Youth Conferences, Inc., $15,000: To support virtual programming for 90 students for the fall semester
- Girl Scouts of North Central Alabama, $2,000: Produce the Four Little Girls: Justice For All patch program virtually; sessions will be filmed and included in online library for future use by Girl Scouts across the country
- Girlz Talk United, $8,000: Support for mental health training for 40 African American teens to discuss mental health, become trained in mental health first aid, and to become crusaders for mental health advocacy in their communities
- Greater Birmingham Ministries, $25,000: To support COVID-safe voter registration efforts as well as outdoor distribution tents and PPE
- HUB Worldwide, $8,000: For the collection and redistribution of surplus medical supplies to under resourced communities in their region
- Jalayah Hackman Foundation, $17,000: To establish a school day program and provide emergency assistance for families
- LETT (Learning Excellence Through Tennis) Birmingham Area Tennis Foundation, $10,000: Support for extra staff and equipment needed for social distancing and for preparation of the Birmingham City Schools afterschool league
- My Father's House Foundation, $8,000: Provide training, support, and encouragement to older foster youths, in preparation for the transition from dependence to independence
- Nathifa Dance Company & Outreach, Inc., $10,000: To support a children's dance troupe and female adult ensemble with virtual and studio classes and workshops on West African dance
- Negro Southern League Museum, $8,000: In support of the 100th anniversary of the first Negro League with programming beginning in fall of 2020

- One Place Metro Alabama Family Justice Center, $17,000: To support operations of domestic violence programs including staff, technology and mental health support.
- Prescott House Child Advocacy Center, $5,000: Safety supplies, food, and supportive services to assist children who are victims of abuse or witnesses to violence served by this Jefferson County's Child Advocacy Center
- Railroad Park Foundation, $25,000: For operations and maintenance support for the park given heavy community use during the COVID crisis
- Sixteenth Street Baptist Church, $15,000: For development of an immersive interpretive journey of civil rights history through virtual platforms during the COVID crisis
- STREAM Innovations, $15,000: To provide experiences to students in science, technology, reading, engineering, arts, and mathematics
- T.A.P., Inc., $20,000: To support education and career focused mentoring in a virtual format
- Vulcan Park and Museum, $10,000: For support for general operations and the digitization of civics content for schools
- Young Life Birmingham South, $8,000: To support adolescents with special needs, including outdoor lunch and learns, basic wellness checks, and meals for families
- YWCA Central Alabama, $20,000: To support operations of Child Development Center and continue implementation of COVID Response guidelines in the facility

Programs and Services to Meet Critical Needs

- A.G. Gaston Boys & Girls Club, $25,000: Support for the Birmingham Enrichment Support Team Initiative, a full day program to support families who need childcare and supplemental learning materials for virtual learning
- Adjacent Space, $8,000: To support content translation to American Sign Language (ASL) to provide access to information for hearing impaired community
- Adventist Community Services, Ephesus, $15,000: Provide meals for people experiencing homelessness and those in need in the Birmingham area during the COVID-19 crisis
- Affordable Counseling Therapy, $15,000: Support mental health services for individuals affected by the pandemic
- AIDS Alabama, $25,000: Assistance for payment of utility deposits and bills, rent and mortgage payments, emergency hotel stays, and food and nutrition assistance
- Alabama Coalition for Immigrant Justice United, $25,000: Rent and utility assistance for those who are struggling financially during COVID-19 and do not qualify for unemployment or federal stimulus benefits
- All Nations Church, $15,000: Provide meals and non-perishable foods to individuals and families in the Fairfield area during the COVID-19 crisis
- Backyard Blessings, $15,000: Support for a weekend feeding program, including delivery to schools and children's homes
- Cancer Awareness Network for Children, Inc., $8,000: Develop training modules for Community Health Advisors to assist seniors who are unable to access telehealth services
- Changed Lives Christian Center, $18,000: Provide vehicle maintenance and fuel for vehicles used in a residential program to serve 55 people

- Cornerstone Schools of Alabama, $15,000: Support technology needs for students and 19 elementary, middle, and high school classrooms
- East Lake Initiative, $10,000: Food and emergency assistance for families and support for program that assists single moms with at-home small business development
- Family Promise of Birmingham, $15,000: Support for the Homeless Prevention Assistance program, which provides financial assistance for rent/mortgage, utility payments, transportation, and childcare
- Generation USA, $25,000: Workforce training in healthcare administration for unemployed Jefferson Co residents
- Hearts of Wheels, $13,000: Provide cars to at-risk youth while teaching car safety, maintenance and ownership
- Hispanic Interest Coalition of Alabama, $8,000: Provide emergency assistance for families including rent/mortgage, utility assistance, and mental health services
- Holy Family Catholic Academy, $15,000: Provide a digital curriculum and technology support for middle school students
- Mission of Hope, $15,000: Provide 2000 meals for families that are available for pickup or delivery
- New Life Pantry, $15,000: Provide food assistance for up to 500 families a month
- Nurturing Golden Hearts, $8,000: Provide access to food vouchers for families at local grocery stores
- STAIR of Birmingham, $25,000: Support for virtual tutoring program and books for STAIR students
- Teach for America – Alabama, $20,000: Rent and utility support for new Teach for America teachers in the Greater Birmingham Area
- Titusville Development Corp., $25,000: Support for emergency utility assistance, rental assistance, and food assistance during the COVID-19 crisis
- Urban Impact, Inc., $20,000: Provide technical assistance to small businesses, including website development, technical equipment, supplies, and materials
- Walker County Coalition for the Homeless, $20,000: Provide emergency assistance, including utility costs, rental assistance, childcare, and transportation services
- WorkFaith Birmingham, $20,000: To support operations of virtual workshops to aid individuals in finding career track employment
- Workshops, Inc., $20,000: Support Avondale Mercantile, a social enterprise that provides a 6-month paid training program followed by community job placement
- Youth in Aging, Inc., $25,000: Provide care packages with PPE and household cleaning supplies for 525 seniors in 4 housing communities